THE

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

[NUMB. 1769.]

THURSDAY, AUGUST 10, 1769.

It is with great Pleaſure we now inform the Public, that, at a GENERAL MEETING of the Inhabitants of Charles-Town, and of the Places adjacent, the following ASSOCIATION was unanimouſly agreed to; which we have no Doubt, will be ſatisfactory to, and concurred with, by every Free-man in the Province.

WE, His Majeſty's dutiful and loving Subjects, the Inhabitants of SOUTH-CAROLINA, being ſenſibly affected with the great Prejudice done to GREAT-BRITAIN, and the abject and wretched Condition to which the BRITISH COLONIES are reduced by ſeveral Acts of Parliament lately paſſed; by ſome of which the Monies that the Coloniſts uſually and chearfully ſpent in the Purchaſe of all Sorts of Goods imported from GREAT-BRITAIN, are now, to their great Grievance, wrung from them, without their Conſent, or even their being repreſented, and applied by the Miniſtry, in Prejudice of, and without Regard to, the real Intereſt of GREAT-BRITAIN, or the Manufactures thereof, almoſt totally, to the Support of new-created Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms, Placemen, paraſitical and novel miniſterial Officers; and by others of which Acts, we are not only deprived of thoſe invaluable Rights, Trial by our Peers and the Common Law, but are alſo made ſubject to the arbitrary and oppreſſive Proceedings of the Civil Law, juſtly abhorred and rejected by our Anceſtors, the Free-Men of England; and finding, that the moſt dutiful and loyal Petitions from the Colonies ALONE, for Redreſs of thoſe Grievances, have been rejected with Contempt, ſo that no Relief can be expected from that Method of Proceeding; and, being fully convinced of the abſolute Neceſſity, of ſtimulating our Fellow-Subjects and Sufferers in GREAT-BRITAIN to aid us, in this our Diſtreſs, and of joining the Reſt of the Colonies, in ſome other loyal and vigorous Methods, that may moſt probably procure ſuch Relief, which we believe may be moſt effectually promoted by ſtrict OECONOMY, and by encouraging the MANUFACTURES of AMERICA in general, and of this Province in particular: WE THEREFORE, whoſe Names are underwritten, do ſolemnly promiſe, and agree to and with each other, That, until the Colonies be reſtored to their former Freedom, by the Repeal of the ſaid Acts, we will moſt ſtrictly abide by the following RESOLUTIONS.

I. That we will encourage and promote the Uſe of NORTH-AMERICAN MANUFACTURES in general, and thoſe of this Province in particular. And any of us, who are Venders thereof, do engage to ſell and diſpoſe of them, at the ſame Rates as heretofore.

II. That we will upon no Pretence whatſoever, either upon our own Account or on Commiſſion, import into this Province, any of the Manufactures of GREAT-BRITAIN, or any other EUROPEAN or EAST-INDIA Goods, either from GREAT-BRITAIN, HOLLAND, or ANY OTHER PLACE, other than ſuch as may have been ſhipped in Conſequence of former Orders; excepting only NEGRO CLOTH, commonly called white and coloured PLAINS, not exceeding One Shilling and Six Pence Sterling per Yard, ſtriped DUFFIL BLANKETS, OSNABRUGS, coarſe white LINENS, not exceeding One Shilling and Six Pence Sterling per Yard, CANVAS, BOLTING CLOTHS, DRUGS and FAMILY MEDICINES, PLANTATION and WORKMENS TOOLS, NAILS, FIRE ARMS, BAR STEEL, GUN POWDER, SHOT, LEAD, FLINTS, WIRE CARDS and CARD WIRE, MILL and GRIND-STONES, FISH HOOKS, printed BOOKS and PAMPHLETS, SALT, COALS, and SALT-PETRE. And excluſive of theſe Articles, we do ſolemnly promiſe and declare, that we will immediately countermand all Orders to our Correſpondents in GREAT-BRITAIN, for ſhipping any ſuch Goods, Wares and Merchandize: And we will ſell and diſpoſe of the Goods we have on Hand, or that may arrive in Conſequence of former Orders, at the ſame Rates as heretofore.

III. That we will uſe the utmoſt OECONOMY, in our Perſons, Houſes and Furniture; particularly, that we will give no MOURNING, or GLOVES or SCARVES at Funerals.

IV. That, from and after the 1ſt Day of January 1770, we will not IMPORT, BUY, or SELL, any NEGROES that ſhall be brought into this Province from AFRICA; nor, after the 1ſt Day of October next, any NEGROES that ſhall be imported from the WEST-INDIES, or ANY OTHER PLACE, excepting from AFRICA as aforeſaid. And that, if any Goods or Negroes ſhall be ſent to us, contrary to our Agreement in this Subſcription, ſuch Goods ſhall be re-ſhipped or ſtored, and ſuch Negroes re-ſhipped from this Province, and not by any Means offered for Sale therein.

V. That we will not purchaſe from, or ſell for, any Maſters of Veſſels, tranſient Perſons, or Non-Subſcribers, any Kind of EUROPEAN or EAST-INDIA GOODS whatever, excepting COALS and SALT, after the 1ſt Day of November next.

VI. That as WINES are ſubject to a heavy Duty, we agree, not to import any on our Account or on Commiſſion, or purchaſe from any Maſter of Veſſel, tranſient Perſon, or Non-Subſcriber, after the 1ſt Day of January next.

VII. LASTLY, That we will not purchaſe any NEGROES imported, or any GOODS or MERCHANDIZE whatever, from any Reſident in this Province, that refuſes or neglects to ſign this Agreement, within one Month from the Date hereof; excepting it ſhall appear he has been unavoidably prevented from doing the ſame. And every Subſcriber who ſhall not, ſtrictly or literally, adhere to this Agreement, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, ought to be treated with the utmoſt Contempt.

GIVEN under our Hands this twenty-ſecond Day of July, 1769.

Mr. TIMOTHY,

WHAT pity it is that the Mamma of that pretty Child, which tranſmitted you the paper ſigned FREE-MAN, publiſhed in your laſt Gazette, had not now and then whipt it for lying; or what ſad man hath impoſed upon it, to make it his dirty inſtrument to "promulge" to the world his own malicious inſinuations about a perſon in this town that every body knows have not the leaſt degree of truth to ſupport them: If this laſt be the caſe, as I would hope it may from the harmleſs caſt of the poor thing, I then muſt ſay, fie upon that naughty perſon, fie upon him, to delude ſo hopeful an innocent into ſuch paw tricks, as muſt make all good people not love it; I am ſure no one chriſtian ſoul can ſuſpect the dear creature itſelf of being guilty of ſuch naughty behaviour. What! and did the ſad deluder terrify it too from trying to put its pretty name to a paper, by telling it the paw-paw word "enemy" was in it? when we all know there was no ſuch word in any of the papers propoſed to be generally ſigned. The harmleſs thing muſt have been ſcared with that word in ſome old imperfect eſſay, never expected or intended to be ſigned in the ſtate it appeared in, but only printed off (as ſeveral were) for the conveniency of the firſt promoters of the late meaſures, in order that they might more ſpeedily and eaſily aſſiſt each other to frame a general form of agreement, fit to be propoſed to the public; and as an exact copy of every ſuch form intended to be ſigned, and of no others, has (to prevent miſtakes) been printed in your Gazette, what pains muſt this Free-man have been at to pick up a ſingle word out of one of the old imperfect eſſays, never noticed in your paper, to endeavour to make miſchief with, and eſpecially when he does not appear not to know, that the only form of agreement, framed by the perſon he is pleaſed to compliment in ſo extraordinary a manner throughout his inimitable inſinuating "production," was that printed at the end of the paper ſigned PRO GREGE ET REGE, in your Gazette No. 1761, dated the 22d of June laſt. The circumſtance of this perſon's "promulging" (as this Free-man ſneeringly has it) any or all of the ſubſequent forms that have ſince been come into one after another, gradually approximating towards that general union of opinion we after two or three attempts happily arrived at, would, he is ſure, with men of ſome honour and candour, not be conſtrued to his diſadvantage, as it publicly and glaringly ſhewed he was not tenacious either of his own or any particular form one moment, after another, more generally ſatisfactory, could be fixed upon, productive of the deſired end. He expected in a general agreement to ſacrifice not a little of his own "opinion:" He has chearfully done ſo, and he makes no doubt numbers of others have done the ſame; the nature of the caſe required ſuch a ſacrifice from almoſt every man that ſigned any one of the forms, in ſhort, provided the eſſential matters were comprehended and plainly expreſſed, ſuch as, That we will uſe the utmoſt oeconomy; That we will encourage North-American manufactures, particularly our own; and that we will import or uſe of European manufactures, &c. only ſuch named articles as we could not well do without: I ſay, theſe things being taken care of, he always look'd upon it (ſome general form being abſolutely neceſſary) that, that which might be thought the moſt generally pleaſing in all other reſpects, ought by all means to be adopted.

The genteel inſinuation about "Treaſurerſhips, or ſome ſuch lucrative poſts," does not, and cannot ſtick where intended, becauſe it is well-known, the man there aimed at never gained one farthing by the public in his life in any manner, and hath frequently declared, both publicly and privately, that he never will accept of any lucrative poſt, upon any account whatever. Many gentlemen know he hath expended large ſums, caſh, out of his pocket in the public ſervice; of which he never was reimburſed a copper, or ever deſired it: Beſides, he hath ſuſtained the loſs of ſome thouſands indirectly, by applying at critical times that cloſe attention to the public concerns, which his own private affairs ſeverely felt the want of; and he defies his keeneſt enemies to produce a ſingle inſtance wherein he hath, directly or indirectly, deviated, or attempted to deviate, one tittle from the declaration above-mentioned. He never courted or will court any man's favour, be his ſtation in life high or low; his value for men always riſes or falls in proportion as their actions appear to him to tend or not to tend towards the public good: He meaſures himſelf to be meaſured by no other ſcale. He feels that he hath ſimply and conſcientiouſly hitherto done his duty to the public, and hopes that he ſhall be always enabled to do it, cæteraque cuncta. But here he is ſure, notwithſtanding all this, he will be ſuſpected by Maſter Billy of fibbing too, for to judge from appearances, the poor creature muſt feel his own boſom ſo totally void of every trace of public ſpirit and generoſity, and ſo altogether contracted into ſelf, that he cannot but think it impoſſible for any other perſon in the world, "man, woman, or child," to be governed in any the leaſt reſpect by contrary principles.---Now I really think this concluſion ſo natural for perſons of ſuch a narrow caſt of mind (too many of which I have met with) that I am no more angry with them for their ungenerous inſinuations, than I was the other day with the modeſt No political place man, that told us, from his own feelings no doubt, "we are enjoying all the bleſſings of life in the higheſt perfection."

I would fain, before I take my leave of this harmleſs thing, warn it of one ill conſequence, or inconvenience at leaſt, attending the habit of telling ſtories, that is, not to be believed even when it may accidentally ſpeak the truth, and if by any means the poor thing can be brought to any degree of ingenuity or ſorrow for what it hath done, then it might be deſired to out with the WHOLE TRUTH plainly, and ſhame the Devil entirely.---In ſuch caſe, my dear Timothy, the pretty whimpering thing ſhould be immediately "let down as eaſily as poſſible," for, believe me, my heart bleeds for it: The naughty men are certainly moſt to blame that deluded it, and took ſuch advantage of the known "weakneſs of poor Billy's head;" a head viſibly not calculated to undergo the fatigue and trouble "of thinking and reaſoning, and acting in conformity thereto;" but by all means aſk it FIRST, whether, notwithſtanding all the pother about the word "enemy," and the "terror" we are told "numbers of well-meaning people have been in," owing to that frightful word; whether, I ſay, that is not a pretence, a mere farce! and not the real cauſe after all, which hath obliged the world with ſo entertaining a "production?" becauſe many ſhrewdly ſuſpect, that the true cauſe was a certain ſpeech made in the Aſſembly, about three or four days before Capt. Curling ſailed, by the very Gentleman ſo politely handled in that paper, to prevent the ſecond reading of the then Circuit-Court Bill (lately paſſed into an act) being put off to a farther day, as had been moved for, and ſeconded by two other Gentlemen of the houſe. If Maſter Billy cannot give ſatisfaction with regard to that matter, as very likely the child may not be able to do, in that caſe, deſire it to aſk one of its viſible prompters, our old experienced friend Mr. No! that ſteady conſtitutional promoter (whether IN or OUT) of harmony and unanimity in all public proceedings.

I am, Sir, yours, &c. C. G.

LOTS,

WILL AGREE FOR AND DISPOSE OF ſome of the ſaid LOTS:

Moſt of them have a front on two ſtreets, many on three; are full ſix feet higher in ſituation, by a level, than the land in the middle of Broad-ſtreet; have a fine proſpect; and no WATER in the whole extent of St. Philip's pariſh PREFERABLE to what may be had there:

He hath framed a WHARF upon the river, to the eaſtward, of about 840 feet in length from ſouth to north, where any ſhip that can come over the Bar may lie and load, and where any of the produce of the province may be landed, without a moment's loſs of time, at either high or low water;

And hath begun to dig a DOCK, intended to be full 20 feet wide at leaſt, and to have ſix feet water at high tide, contiguous to a LONG WHARF, alſo intended to be made, at the north ſide of his land, and which he makes no doubt of finiſhing this year; ſo that the purchaſers of his Lots, may have their wood and other heavy articles conveyed to their doors, at as little expence as in any part of Charles-Town.

Such perſons as will promiſe to improve them within a year, or eighteen months, from the date hereof, may have their timber, bricks, lime and other materials for building on ſaid Lots, landed at either of his wharves, within the above-mentioned time, FREE OF CHARGE.

He takes this private method of diſpoſing of his Lots, rather than by public ſale, in order to avoid (if poſſible) being peſtered with dram-ſhops, and other nuſances, that may make the neighbourhood diſagreeable.

LONDON, May 6.

YESTERDAY was held a Court of Common Council at Guildhall, in conſequence of an application of a large body of the Livery to the Lord Mayor, deſiring him to call a Common-Hall, and acquainting him, 'It was for the purpoſe of taking the ſenſe of 'the Livery of London, on the meaſures proper to be purſued by 'them on the preſent alarming ſituation of public affairs,' which his Lordſhip had refuſed, 'till ſuch time as he had taken the ſenſe of the Common Council upon it; upon which a queſtion was moved by Mr. Bellas, and ſeconded by Mr. Freeman, 'That 'the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, be deſired to iſſue a precept 'to aſſemble the Livery in Common-Hall, purſuant to their ap'plication to his Lordſhip,' and after long debates thereon, the ſaid queſtion being put, was declared to be carried in the negative; upon which a diviſion was demanded, Mr. Bellas and Mr. Freeman, tellers for the queſtion, Mr. Paterſon and Mr. Deputy Ellis, tellers againſt the queſtion, when there appeared to be for the queſtion, three Aldermen, 69 Commoners, making together 72; againſt the queſtion, ſix Aldermen, 86 Commoners, making together 92.

The Lord Mayor, after having opened the Court, deſired the Act of the 13th of CHARLES II. to be read, entitled, 'an Act 'againſt tumults and diſorders, upon pretence of preparing or 'preſenting public petitions, or other Addreſſes, to his Majeſty 'or the Parliament,' whereby it is enacted, That no perſon after Auguſt 1, 1662, ſhall ſolicit or procure the getting of hands, or other conſent, of any perſons, above the number of twenty, or more, to any petition, complaint, remonſtrance, declaration, or other addreſs to the King, or both, or either Houſes of Parliament, for alteration of matters eſtabliſhed by law in church or ſtate, unleſs the matter thereof have been firſt conſented unto (if in London) by the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council aſſembled; and that no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall repair to his Majeſty, or both or either Houſes of Parliament, upon pretence of preſenting or delivering any petition, complaint, remonſtrance, or declaration, or other addreſſes, accompanied with exceſſive number of people, nor at any one time with above the number of ten perſons, upon pain of incurring a penalty not exceeding 100l. in money, and three months impriſonment.

The principal Speakers on this occaſion, were, for petitioning, Mr. Alderman Beckford, Mr. Alderman Trecothick, George Bellas, Eſq; Samual Freeman, Eſq; Arthur Beardmore, Eſq. Againſt petitioning, Right Hon. Thomas Harley, John Paterſon, Dep. Francis Ellis, Dep. Robert Wilſonne, Dep. John Raincock, Henry Hall, Edward Barwick, Euſtace Kentiſh.

The impartial, upright, and prudent conduct of the preſent Chief Magiſtrate of this city on a late critical occaſion, has encreaſed the number of his friends, as he plainly demonſtrated himſelf to be uninfluenced by any party.

It is now ſaid, that great numbers of the Livery, who were diſappointed in their expectations yeſterday, will have meetings at their reſpective Halls, to conſider of a petition, the heads of which a certain popular Proctor, it is ſaid, is in poſſeſſion of.

MAY 9.

The Livery of London meet this evening at the Half-Moon Tavern, in Cheapſide, to conſider of a legal method of aſſembling themſelves, and applying for redreſs of the invaſion of the Right of the People to elect their own Repreſentatives.

We hear that a great number of the Livery of London have laid ſome queſtions before the moſt eminent counſel, touching their intended petition, whoſe opinions they have not yet received.

MAY 11.

On Tueſday evening upwards of 500 of the livery of this city met at the Half-Moon Tavern, Cheapſide, when a motion was made, that a requeſt ſhould again be delivered to the Right Hon. the Lord-Mayor to call a Common Hall for the conſidering of a petition to be preſented to his Majeſty on the preſent poſture of affairs; when Mr. Collier, Citizen and Mercer, moved, that the mode of the requeſt might be altered, and that inſtead of the word "Common-Hall," the words, "the uſe of the Guildhall may be granted," be inſerted; which was agreed to, and the written requeſt was left at the Half-Moon Tavern, till laſt night ten o'clock, for as many more of the livery to ſign it as ſhould be ſo inclined.

MAY 12.

On Wedneſday night upwards of 1100 liverymen had ſigned the requeſt to the Lord Mayor, for the uſe of Guildhall to take the ſenſe of the whole body of the livery, relative to a petition to his Majeſty.

The following is the report of the committee appointed by the livery to wait on the Lord Mayor with the above requeſt:

"Your committee, appointed by a conſiderable number of your body to wait on the Lord Mayor to requeſt the uſe of Guildhall, that they might conſider of a petition to his Majeſty for the redreſs of grievances, did accordingly wait on his Lordſhip this morning with the ſaid requeſt; to which his Lordſhip gave for anſwer, that having conſulted the Aldermen and Common Council upon your former application, and they having adviſed him againſt that meaſure, he could not grant the preſent requeſt. His Lordſhip expreſſed ſome concern that he had it not in his power to comply. Upon which it was obſerved to his Lordſhip, that on the 24th of June a Common Hall would be called by his Lordſhip, when, if it could not be ſooner, moſt certainly at that time this important concern would be entered upon with becoming reſolution, unleſs ſome other expedient ſhould be thought of before, for the livery of London were determined to uſe every conſtitutional means for redreſs againſt every obſtacle that ſhould be thrown in the way.

Signed by order of the Committee,

Half Moon Tavern, Cheapſide, May 11. MICH. LOVELL, Chairman.

N. B. When the Common Council, adviſed his Lordſhip not to comply, the petition of the freeholders of Middleſex was then depending. That queſtion is now decided, which we cannot but apprehend may alter the opinion of the Common Council, who may now concur with you."

MAY 23.

It is ſaid that meetings will ſpeedily be called in the ſeveral wards throughout the city, to conſider of proper perſons for Common Council men next year, that on next St. Thomas's day, they may have perſons of approved principles to repreſent them.

ANNAPOLIS (in MARYLAND) June 22.

WE, the ſubſcribers, his Majeſty's loyal and dutiful ſubjects, the Merchants, Traders, Freeholders, Mechanicks, and other Inhabitants of the province of Maryland, ſeriouſly conſidering the preſent ſtate and condition of the province, and being ſenſible, that there is a neceſſity to agree upon ſuch meaſures as may tend to diſcourage, and as much as may be, prevent the uſe of foreign luxuries and ſuperfluities, in the conſumption of which, we have heretofore too much indulged ourſelves, to the great detriment of our private fortunes, and, in ſome inſtances, to the ruin of families; and to this end, to practiſe ourſelves, and as much as poſſible, to promote, countenance, and encourage in others, a habit of temperance, frugality, œconomy, and induſtry; and conſidering alſo, that meaſures of this nature are more particularly neceſſary at this time, as the Parliament of Great-Britain, by impoſing taxes upon many articles imported hither from thence, and from other parts beyond ſea, have left it leſs in our power, than in time paſt, to purchaſe and pay for the manufactures of the mother country; which taxes, eſpecially thoſe impoſed by a late act of Parliament, laying duties on Tea, Paper, Glaſs, &c. we are clearly convinced, have been impoſed contrary to the ſpirit of our conſtitution, and have a direct and manifeſt tendency to deprive us, in the end, of all political freedom, and reduce us to a ſtate of dependance, inconſiſtent with that liberty we have rightfully enjoyed under the government of his preſent moſt ſacred Majeſty, to whom we owe, acknowledge, and will always joyfully pay all due obedience and allegiance, and of his royal predeceſſors, ever ſince the firſt ſettlement of the province, until of very late time, have thought it neceſſary to unite, as early as our circumſtances will admit, with our ſiſter colonies, in reſolutions for the purpoſe aforeſaid; and therefore do hereby agree, and bind ourſelves to and with each other, by all ties and obligations of honour and reputation, that we will ſtrictly and faithfully obſerve, and conform to the following RESOLUTIONS, viz.

I. That we will not, at any time hereafter, directly or indirectly, import, or cauſe to be imported, any manner of goods, merchandize or manufactures, which are, or ſhall hereafter be taxed by act of parliament, for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue in America, except paper, not exceeding ſix ſhillings per ream, and except ſuch articles only as orders have been already ſent for, but that we will always conſider ſuch taxations, in every reſpect, as an abſolute prohibition of the articles that are or may be taxed.

II. That we will not hereafter, directly or indirectly, during the continuance of the aforeſaid act of parliament, import, or cauſe to be imported from Great-Britain, or any other part of Europe, except ſuch articles of the produce or manufacture of Ireland, as may be immediately and legally brought from thence; and alſo, except all ſuch goods as orders have been already ſent for; any of the goods herein after enumerated, viz. Horſes, ſpirits, wine, cyder, perry, beer, ale, malt, barley, peaſe, beef, pork, fiſh, butter, cheeſe, tallow, candles, oil, except ſallad-oil, fruitt, pickles, confectionary, Britiſh refined ſugar, muſtard, coffee, pewter, tin ware of all kinds, whether plain or painted, waiters, and all kind of japanned ware, wrought copper, wrought and caſt braſs and bell-metal, watches, clocks, plate, and all other gold and ſilverſmith's work, trinkets, and jewellery of all kinds, gold and ſilver lace, joiner's and cabinet work of all ſorts, looking-glaſſes, upholſtery of all kinds, carriages of all kinds, ribbons and millinary of all kinds, except wig-ribbon; lace, cambrick, lawn, muſlin, kenting, gauze of all kinds, except boulting cloths; ſilks of all kinds, except raw and ſewing-ſilk, and wig-cauls; velvets, chintzes and callicoes of all ſorts, of more than twenty pence per yard, Eaſt-India goods of every kind, except ſalt-petre, black pepper and ſpices; printed linens, and printed cottons, ſtriped linens and cottons, check linens, and cotton checks of all kinds, handkerchiefs of all kinds, at more than ten ſhillings per dozen, cotton velvets, and all kinds of cotton or cotton and linen ſtuffs, bed-bunts and bed-ticken of all ſorts, cotton counterpanes, and cover-lids, Britiſh-manufactured linens of all kinds, except ſail-cloth; Iriſh and all foreign linens above one ſhilling and ſix pence per yard, woollen cloth, above five quarters wide, of more than five ſhillings per yard, narrow cloths of all ſorts, of more than three ſhillings per yard, worſted ſtuffs of all ſorts, above thirteen pence per yard, ſilk and worſted, ſilk and cotton, ſilk and hair, and hair and worſted ſtuffs of all kinds; worſted and hair ſhagg, mourning of all and every kind, ſtockings, caps, waiſtcoat and breeches patterns of all kinds, rugs of all ſorts above eight ſhillings, blankets above five ſhillings per blanket, mens and womens ready-made cloths, and wearing apparel of all kinds, hats of all kinds, of more than two ſhillings per hat, wigs, gloves and mits of all kinds, ſtays and bodices of all ſorts, boots, ſaddles, and all manufactures of leather and ſkins of all kinds, except mens and womens ſhoes of not more than four ſhillings per pair, whips, bruſhes and brooms of all ſorts, gilt and hair trunks, paintings, carpets of all ſorts, ſnuff-boxes, ſnuff and other manufactured tobacco, ſoap, ſtarch, playing-cards, dice, Engliſh china, Engliſh ware in imitation of china, Delft and ſtone ware of all ſorts, except milk-pans, ſtone bottles, jugs, pitchers and chamber-pots, marble and wrought ſtone of any kind, except ſcythe-ſtones, mill-ſtones and grind-ſtones, iron caſtings, ironmongery of all ſorts except nails, hoes, ſteel, handicraft and manufacturers tools, locks, frying-pans, ſcythes and ſickles; cutlery of all ſorts, except knives and forks, not exceeding three ſhillings per dozen, knives, ſciſſars, ſheep-ſheers, needles, pins and thimbles, razors, chirurgical inſtruments and ſpectacles; cordage, or tarred rope of all ſorts, ſeines, ſhips colours ready made, ivory, horn and bone ware of all ſorts, except combs.

III. That we will not, during the time aforeſaid, import any wines, of any kind whatever, except ſuch wines as are already imported, or for which orders are already ſent.

IV. That we will not kill, or ſuffer to be killed, or ſell, or diſpoſe to any perſon whom we have reaſon to believe intends to kill, any ewe-lamb that ſhall be yeaned before the firſt day of May in any year, during the time aforeſaid.

V. That we will not, directly or indirectly, during the time aforeſaid, purchaſe, take up, or receive, on any terms or conditions whatever, any of the goods enumerated in the ſecond reſolution, that ſhall or may be imported into this province contrary to the intent and deſign of theſe reſolutions, by any perſon whatever, or conſigned to any factor, agent, manager, or ſtore-keeper here, by any perſon reſiding in Great-Britain, or elſewhere; and if any ſuch goods ſhall be imported, we will not, upon any conſideration whatever, rent, or ſell to, or permit any way to be made uſe of by, any ſuch importer, his agent, factor, manager or ſtorekeeper, or any perſon, on his, on their behalf, any ſtore-houſe or other houſe, or any kind of place whatever, belonging to us, reſpectively, for expoſing to ſale, or even ſecuring any ſuch goods, nor will we ſuffer any ſuch to be put on ſhore on our reſpective properties.

VI. That if any perſon ſhall import, or endeavour to import, from Great-Britain, or any part of Europe, any goods whatever, contrary to the ſpirit and deſign of the foregoing reſolutions, or ſhall ſell any goods which he has now, or may hereafter have on hand, or may import, on any other terms than are herein expreſſed, we will not, at any time hereafter, deal with any ſuch perſon, his agent, manager, factor or ſtore-keeper, for any commodity whatever; and that ſuch of us as are or may be ſellers of goods, will not take any adventage of the ſcarcity of goods that this agreement may occaſion, but will ſell ſuch as we have now on hand, or may hereafter import, or have for ſale, at the reſpective uſual and accuſtomed rates for three years laſt paſt.

VII. That we will not, during the time aforeſaid, import into this province, any of the goods above enumerated for non-importation in the ſecond reſolution, which have been, or ſhall be imported from Great-Britain, or ſome part of Europe, from any colony or province, which hath not entered, or ſhall not, within two months from the date hereof, enter into reſolutions of non-importation; nor will we purchaſe, take up, or receive on any terms or conditions whatever, any ſuch goods from any perſon or perſons that may import the ſame; nor will we purchaſe, take up, or receive on any terms or conditions, any of the ſaid goods which may be imported from any province or colony, which has entered, or may enter into ſuch reſolutions, unleſs a certificate ſhall accompany ſuch goods, under the hands of a committee of merchants (if any) of the place from whence ſuch goods ſhall come; if no ſuch committee, then under the hands of at leaſt three of the principal merchants there, who have entered into reſolutions of non-importation, that ſuch goods were imported before ſuch reſolution was entered into in ſuch place. And that we will not purchaſe, take up, or receive on any terms or conditions whatever, after the expiration of ſix months from the date hereof, from any colony or province aforeſaid, any of the ſaid enumerated articles, which have been, or ſhall be imported from Great-Britain.

VIII. We, the tradeſmen and manufacturers, do likewiſe promiſe and agree, that we will not avail ourſelves of the ſcarcity of European goods, proceeding from the reſolutions for non-importation, to riſe or enhance the prices of the different articles or commodities by us wrought up or manufactured; but that we will ſell and diſpoſe of the ſame at the uſual and accuſtomed rates we have done for theſe three years paſt.

LASTLY, That if any perſon or perſons whatever, ſhall oppoſe or contravene the above reſolutions, or act in oppoſition to the true ſpirit and deſign thereof, we will conſider him or them as enemies to the liberties of America, and treat them, on all occaſions, with the contempt they deſerve; provided that theſe reſolutions ſhall be binding on us for and during the continuance of the before-mentioned act of parliament, unleſs a general meeting of ſuch perſons at Annapolis, as may, at any time hereafter, be requeſted by the people of the ſeveral counties in this province, to meet for the purpoſe of conſidering the expediency of diſpenſing with the ſaid reſolutions, or any of them, not exceeding four from each county, or a majority of ſuch of them as ſhall attend, ſhall determine otherwiſe.

The above reſolutions were ſubſcribed by a number of the moſt conſiderable merchants, &c. of Maryland.
